Notes for David Driskell:

NORMAN PATE, A GENTLEMAN FROM LOUISVILLE WHO IS ALSO RESEARCHING SOME OF THE PATE, PAYNE AND DRISKELL LINES SENT INFORMATION REGARDING MUCH OF THE DRISKELL FAMILY. ALTHOUGH I DON'T KNOW HIS EXACT SOURCES, I TRUST THAT HIS INFORMATION IS TRUE AND ACCURATE TO THE BEST OF HIS KNOWLEDGE. WHEN HE SENT INFO ON THE FAMILY OF ANDREW DRISKELL-LYDIA BRUINGTON FAMILY..HE SAID THAT ANDREW'S PARENTS WERE REFERRED TO AS UNCLE DAVE AND AUNT SUE. SO I GUESS MISSOURI WAS CALLED SUE FOR SHORT.

3. George D. Driskell-2(David-1)^[1] was born on 24 Feb 1868 in Breckinridge Co., KY^[1]. He died on 16 Oct 1915 in Jefferson Co., KY^[1]. He married Addie Harrington McCoy in 1894^[1], daughter of Harvey Benjamin Benton McCoy and Mary E. McKaughan. She was born on 26 Mar 1874 in Stephensport, Breckenidge, Kentucky^[1, 4]. She died on 28 Jan 1930 in Jefferson, Kentucky^[1, 4].

Notes for George D. Driskell:

George's death certificate lists the informant as Hester Driskell. For now, I'm assuming it's his wife. No proof.

1880 Census lists him as D. George, not George D. So often this is true!!! Children of George D. Driskell and Addie Harrington McCoy are:

- i. Edward Driskill, B: Apr 1896 in Kentucky^[1].
- ii. Annie Driskill, B: Jan 1897 in Kentucky^[1].
- iii. Grace Taylor Driskell, B: 01 Jul 1897 in Kentucky^[1], D: 01 Jan 1989 in Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky, United States of America^[1].

Notes for Grace Taylor Driskell:

The 1930 Federal Census shows Grace Barbee living in Louisville with her sister, Alene Driskill. Grace is shown as being married, however her husband is not listed in the household.

Mother's bible says his date of death was May 5, 1934.

On the 1880 federal census, Silas is listed as H. Silas. Mother always said he was Silas Heston. Cousin Heston Driskell of CA said he was Heston Silas. He went by Heston though which leads me to believe that was his middle name. Many people used their middle names at that time..his father in law, Charles Logan Pate went by Logan and there are other examples as well.

Notes for Minnie Pate:

Minnie died in or soon after childbirth, with her second child, a girl that was named Shella. A portrait of Minnie exists and was in the possession of her granddaughter, Virginia Driskell Foertmeyer.

Cemetery records in Breckinridge Co. show Minnie Driskell is buried in the Old Hardinsburg

Cemetery, also known as Old Ivy Hill Cemetery, grave #12868, inscription says "wife of Heston". There is no mention of the infant.

Children of Silas Heston Driskell and Minnie Pate are:

9. i. Garland Driskell, B: 11 Aug 1893 in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, D: 08 Mar 1960 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Bethesda Hospital, M: Ruth Marie Schwartz, 24 Aug 1920 in Pinckneyville, Illinois.
- ii. Shella Driskell, B: 01 Mar 1895 in Hardinsburg, Breckinridge Co. KY, D: 25 Jun 1895 in Hardinsburg, Breckinridge Co. KY.

Notes for Shella Driskell:

We never knew the name of Garland's baby sister until Mother got some papers from her cousin that were found in "Grandma Driskell's" effects. On it she had "Shella Driskell", and her birthdate. We found two references to this child's name in her papers. Shella was 4 mos. and 24 days old when she died. Family tradition always said her mother, Minnie Pate Driskell, died in childbirth. We have not found a grave for Shella but it is possible she is buried among other Pate family members.

Notes for Emma V. Hoffman:

!Emma is the 2nd of Silas Heston Driskell, only one living child, Garland, was produced from his first marriage to Minnie Pate. The Driskell-Hoffman line of the family has not been readily researched by us but we are in touch with mother's cousin, Heston Driskell, Jr. There were a total of 10 children in her family, only three are known, Emma, Ben and Lillian. Emma was the 5th child born.

The Rev. Mr. Driskell, who was born December 5, 1883, in Hardinsburg, Ky., was educated in Davis public school, Kingswood College in Kingswood, Ky., and Seashore Divinity School in Biloxi, Miss. He preached his first sermon at Ephesus Presbyterian Church near Harned, Ky., in April, 1910, and was licensed at Mt. Zion Church near Kingswood July 21, 1910.

It was during four years service as a missionary-evangelist that he preached his first sermon in Mississippi in the Baptist Church at Webb, in December 1911. It was also during that period he met Miss Lois Hyde, whom he married at Sumner, Miss., Jan. 29, 1913.

He was licensed to preach at Tutwiler, Miss., April 17, 1914 and appointed to serve the Valley Mission until November, 1917. He was ordained a deacon in 1918 and an elder in 1922.

Since 1917, the Rev. Mr. Driskell has served the following charges: Greenwood Springs, Buena Vista, Fulton, Calhoun City, Lambert, Late Cormorant, Vaiden, Pickens, Marks, Byhalia and Winona.

He kept a record of his ministry; the place, date and text of every sermon, date of every marriage and funeral and list of every member received and dismissed.

Rev. Driskell served as secretary of the North Mississippi Conference for 18 years and since his retirement in June 1953 he had served the Winona Circuit until his recent illness. He had also served on the board of missions and board of evangelism. He had formerly been a member of the Rotary and Lions clubs.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lois Hyde Driskell of Winona; four daughters, Mrs. Carroll Johnson of Monroe, La., Mrs. Jack Abbott, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., Mrs. Chris George of Winona and Mrs. James Laughter of Hernando, and four grandchildren.

9. Garland Driskell-3(Silas Heston-2, David-1) was born on 11 Aug 1893 in Hardinsburg, Kentucky. He died on 08 Mar 1960 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Bethesda Hospital. He married Ruth Marie Schwartz on 24 Aug 1920 in Pinckneyville, Illinois, daughter of John Walter Schwartz and Emma Catherine Tanner. She was born on 24 Oct 1898 in Elkhart, Jackson Co, Illinois. She died on 13 Sep 1989 in Lebanon, Warren Co., Ohio.

Notes for Garland Driskell:

Garland Driskell was born in Hardinsburg, KY to Silas Driskell and Minnie Pate. Minnie died during childbirth of Garland's sister, Shella, who did not survive. Garland served overseas during WWI and was 20% disabled at discharge having been gassed during the war. (Source: Kentucky Military Records). Garland worked as a commercial artist and salesman and was active in the Masons. The 1900 census for Breckinridge Co. shows Garland Driskell living in the household of his grandparents, David and Missouri Meador Driskell. Garland's mother died about 1895 and although his father, Silas, remarried within the same year, for some reason Garland is living with his paternal grandparents. Driskell, David, married for 36 years, born Jan 1850, age 50 Missouri born Sep 1845, age 55 Ernest (son) born Dec. 1887, age 16 Garland (grandson) Aug 1893, age 6 Henry T. (son) Nov 1879, age 20

This information provided by Clerk of Courts, Breckinridge Co.

Kentucky Virginia Driskell, Garland's daughter, said he was raised by his Aunt Acrattia (known as Cratter) Pate.

In 1960, Garland was hospitalized for lung cancer but died suddenly of a heart attack while in the hospital. He and Ruth had been married for 40 years. Garland worked for Serv-A-Tool out of Dayton, OH until 2 weeks before his death.

From a publication by the Norwood Masonic Lodge, December 1938: "Brother Garland started his journey to our East from Hardinsburg, KY on August 11, 1893 He stopped several places on the way; motable about one and a half years in France, with the 147th Field Artillery, 32nd Division, during the World War. He also spent some time studying at the Ohio Mechanics Institute, Cincinnati, and graduated there to enter the business world of Cincinnati. At present, he is salesman for Leland Davic and Associates, in charge of out of town sales. Brother Garland is quite artistic in many ways, and is particularly artistic in 1930 Census shows Garland, now married to Ruth, and dau. Virginia living in Norwood, Hamilton Co. OH

Garland had no middle name. When he was born, his mother wanted to name him Garland Oscar Driskell but then realized his initials would be G.O.D. She felt that was sacrilegious so gave him no middle name at all.

Notes for Ruth Marie Schwartz:

Ruth and her sister Mabel were known as "fun loving" girls. She grew up in Elkhaville, IL and surrounding area and married an Edly Plummer right out of school. This was an ill-fated marriage that lasted only 1 year. Shortly after, Ruth met Garland Driskell of KY, a traveling salesman. After 3 weeks of courtship, they were married in Pinkneyville in 1920. She moved to Owensboro with Garland where their daughter was born and a year later, moved to Norwood, Ohio (Cincinnati) where they remained. After Virginia married, and with some assistance from Charles, they owned their first home on Hilltop Lane in Wyoming, Ohio. Ruth worked for a while at the Shillito's Department store, now Lazarus and as a sales person for the Rookwood Pottery in Cincinnati. She never learned to drive..having been scared badly by a truck driver while trying to learn. After Garland's death, she took an apartment in Mt. Healthy and remained there for 25 years. A stroke forced her to give up her apartment and move in for a short time with Ginny and Charles. She had a bout with intestinal cancer for which she had surgery and it never recurred. Her doctor did recommend, for hers and Ginny's sake, that she be put in a nursing home. It was an unpleasant decision but she went to live at Lebanon Health Care Center in Lebanon, OH. Ginny made the long trip there 2-3 times a week for 7 years. Ruth died there on Sept. 13, 1989. She was not able to communicate well in those later years and although we knew she didn't like it there, it was hard to tell just how she felt or if she understood why it had to be. A sad time in our lives. She did get to meet her great grandson Adam Putt. We took him to visit several times before her death. She would hold him on her lap and say, "mine, mine". I'm sorry she never knew Emily..she would have had a field day with her beautiful blond hair. One of Boo's (as we called her) favorite things was to curl and dress her little girls...first Ginny and then Gayle when she was little. Gayle did not, being such a tomboy, appreciate her efforts.

 Journal written by Eva Lucy Schwartz and in the possession of William Homer "Duke" Castleton (on loan to Gayle Putt) states that Ruth Schwartz married Edly Thornton, not Plummer, on May 1, 1915. Eva Lucy was the aunt of Ruth Schwartz. Thornton is not correct..another niece of Lucy married a Thornton. In a later journal entry, Lucy states: " Ruth Schwartz Plummer Drisdrell (Driskell)has a baby girl born July 7,1921" This of course, is Virginia. Lucy uses Plummer here but gets Driskell fouled up.

16. Virginia Louise Driskell-4(Garland-3, Silas Heston-2, David-1) was born on 07 Jul 1921 in Owensboro, Daviess Co, Kentucky. She died on 11 Oct 2002 in Mercy Hosp. South, Fairfield, Butler Co. OH_[10]. She married Charles Henry Foertmeyer M.D. on 07 Aug 1943 in Carlisle Barracks, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, son of Charles George Foertmeyer and Blanche Cole. He was born on 09 Oct 1917. He died on 28 Oct 2011 in Fairfield, Butler Co., OH (Mercy Hospital).

Notes for Virginia Louise Driskell:

Virginia is an only child and in later years admitted she wished she had had brothers and sisters. She had a happy childhood but regrets that one part. She was born in Owensboro, KY but moved with her family to Cincinnati when just about 6 weeks old. The family rented homes in Norwood, OH where Virginia attended school throughout her school years. She dislikes the name Virginia and prefers to be called Ginny. She attended the Christ Hospital School of Nursing and met her husband Charles, through her association with General Hospital, now University Hospital. They were married in 1943 and traveled much about the country in the early years as the Army moved them from place to place, mostly in Kansas and Arizona. While Charles was overseas, Ginny lived with her parents in Norwood. After his return, they bought a small house on Banbury St. in Valleydale where the first two children were born. They later moved to a larger house at 926 Reily Rd. in Wyoming where Thomas was born. With the impending arrival of John, they bought their home at 554 Woodbrook Lane in Wyoming and lived there until 2002. Due to Charles' failing health, they moved to a smaller ranch style home at 789 Danbury in Forest Park. Ginny hated giving up the home on Woodbrook - it was their home for nearly 50 years. Ginny never returned to nursing after her children were born. She was active in many clubs and associations, always a part of her childrens activities and was a wonderful grandma..doing typically wonderful grandmotherly things including many trips to the Museum Center, Chuck E Cheeses and the zoo.

Mother passed away on October 11, 2002 of a heart attack. It was totally unexpected and so sudden. I can't imagine life without her and all the wonderful things she did for us.

Notes for Charles Henry Foertmeyer M.D.:

Charlie Foertmeyer was born on the kitchen table at their Shaw Ave. home in Hyde Park, Cincinnati, OH. A nursing home now stands at the site of their old home. He attended Withrow High School and the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. His goal had been psychiatry but WWII intervened before he finished that specialty. Captain Foertmeyer served in the European theatre with Patton's Army in the medical corps and upon his return (aboard the ship Aiken Victory), he and wife Virginia began their family.

Descendants of David Driskell

Generation 4 (con't)

Charles practiced internal medicine rather than taking more time to finish his psychiatry specialty. He joined the practice of Stewart Matthews, M.D. (The Wyoming Medical Center) in Wyoming, OH and remained a part of that ever-changing group for his entire career. He retired in 1983 and pursued a leisurely life enjoying his hobbies..golf..lapidary...ham radio..."computing".. He always enjoyed traveling and in earlier years took our family on marvelous month-long vacations all over the United States.

On Oct. 27, 1992, he was honored by the Cincinnati Academy of Medicine for 50 years of service. Their first home was on Banbury St. in Valleydale, moving to 926 Reily Rd. in Wyoming, OH in 1952. About 4 years later they moved about 2 blocks away to 554 Woodbrook Ln. In 2002, Charles had surgery for stenosis on his spine and was hospitalized for about three months. Upon his release, he could not return to the home on Woodbrook as it was not handicapped accessible and Charles was now pretty much wheel chair bound. Ginny and Charlie purchased a new home at 789 Danbury in Forest Park, close to son Tom and daughter Gayle. Chuck moved in with Charles after Mother passed away.

!The Hawhees lived in Waverly, Ohio on the shores of Lake White. "Coach", as Carroll was called, was the high school football coach. I remember a visit we made back in the 70's..they had a pontoon party boat which they kept moored near their home on Lake White. We took a delightful boat ride on it! Their home sat on the hillside above the road which ran between their home and the lake, on a very wooded lot. I got a kick out of the refrigerator in their basement...it had a tap right through the door. When coach hosted parties, a keg could be put in the frige to stay cold and refreshment could be had right from the tap!

Notes for Gayle Marie Foertmeyer:

Gayle was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Attended Wyoming, Ohio public schools all the way through. In 1969, she began her higher education at William Woods College (now University) in Fulton, Missouri. She graduated in 1973, cum laude, and was selected Distinguished Scholar in the Dept. of Elementary Education. However, other than a couple of instances of substitute teaching, she never taught school as a career. Instead, she went to work for her father's medical practice and remained in that field for the next 18 years. She quit work altogether in March of 1992 to stay home and raise her two children. She returned to work part time for the Winton Woods City Schools as a crossing guard and cafeteria worker when daughter, Emily, entered kindergarten.

After two years in those jobs, she returned to substitute teaching for the same school district beginning in the fall of 1999.

Her first love in life has always been horses. She started riding at age 5 and talked father into buying a horse by age 13. Her second horse, Royalty Roan, became her good friend. Roan died 30 years later at 33. He died as a result of a stroke and is buried on the farm of Gayle's long time friend, Vicki Gannon Vick off Thompson Road in Colerain Twp.

Gayle's other interests are cross-stitching, knitting and other needle crafts and occasionally likes drawing and painting..mostly horses.

Gayle had a brief first marriage from 1978-1980, no children resulted. During that time she lived in Apt. 5 at 1428 Springfield Pike in Wyoming, OH. After the divorce, Gayle continued to live at that address until Oct. of 1987. She married Nicholas Putt on 4-4-1987 and Nick moved into the apartment from his mobile home in Harrison, OH. Not being able to support two residences, the mobile home was moved to 389 Barker Dr. in the Countryside mobile home park near Hamilton and the apartment was bid farewell.

In January of 1993, the couple bought a ranch home at 714 Carlsbad Road in Forest Park, OH.

Great dog lovers, the couple had a schnoodle called Max which was adopted from the pound in October of 1987.

Max passed away in Sept. of 1997. They also had a GSD, Shadow and raised Pembroke Welsh Corgis.

Mischief, Kit, and Dharma were long time residents, others came and went according to Gayle's breeding needs.

Notes for Frank J. Kandil:

Middle initial J. stood for nothing, just the letter J.

Notes for Nicholas Paul Putt:

Nick was born in Cincinnati , Ohio to Gene and Mabel Putt. He attended parochial schools through his early elementary years, later attending Mt. Healthy Public School through high school. Nick's first career interest is law enforcement. He started as a Ranger in the Hamilton Co. Park District, later working with the Cleves, Ohio police Department. He took a job, better pay, with the state of Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation for 10 years. He left "the state" to work for Colerain Twp. PD but left after a year for "political" reasons. He worked briefly for the Elmwood Twp. PD but left after 6 mo. feeling it was a corrupt system. This was later proved when the mayor and former mayor were convicted for election fraud and other community leaders, including the PD were still under investigation. Nick returned to the Bureau of Worker's compensation where he worked in his old capacity as a fraud investigator until January of 1992 when he made a lateral transfer to work as a corrections officer at a state prison in Lebanon, OH. Nick is a Mason, "non-practicing" member of the Catholic Church.

After their April 4, 1987 marriage, upon which it snowed heavily, the couple flew to Phoenix, AZ for a honeymoon..staying at a resort in Carefree, AZ. After 3 days there, they flew on to Las Vegas and spent 4 more days there. Initially, Nick moved into Gayle's apartment at 1428 Springfield Pk, #5 in Wyoming, OH but the couple later moved into Nick's mobile home and settled in at 389 Barker Dr. near Hamilton, OH. Both children were born while the couple lived here. On January 18, 1993, the family moved into their house at 714 Carlsbad Rd. in Forest Park OH.

Nick left his job as a corrections officer and worked for the Security Department at the Drake Center on Galbraith Rd. in Cincinnati, OH. A few years later, he took the job of Environmental Services Manager at the Drake Center.

He was hit by a car at age 11 and broke his leg...7 mo from the time of the accident until he could walk unassisted. Multitudes of stitches later, he is amazingly still with us. 29. Jennifer Marie Foertmeyer-6(Charles Henry-5, Virginia Louise-4, Garland-3, Silas Heston-2, David-1) was born on 04 Nov 1980. She married Geoffrey Hamilton Mandeville Jr. on 07 Oct 2000 in Erwinna, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania, in the family farm orchard, son of Geoffrey Hamilton Mandeville Sr. and Penelope Dell Meyer. He was born on 12 Nov 1974 in Doylestown, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA.

Notes for Jennifer Marie Foertmeyer:

Jennifer was born on election day 1980 when the nation elected Ronald Reagan.

Notes for Geoffrey Hamilton Mandeville Jr.:

Both the Doremus and Mandeville families were of Holland extraction, the original ancestors in this country having been emigrants from Holland, coming over about 1650, and settling in Passaic County, New Jersey, where many of their descendants still reside, respected and esteemed as good and influential citizens of the State. Giles Jansen de Mandeville, the ancestor in this country of the family of that name, was a French Huguenot, and fled from Normandy to Holland as a refugee in the days of Roman Catholic persecution in France. From Holland he emigrated to America, in the same ship with the famous Governor Stuyvesant, of the colony of New Amsterdam, now New York. He became the friend of De Mandeville, and aided him in many ways through his influence as Governor of the colony.

Below from a note posted on the internet by a Carleen Aiken:

I am a descendant of Giles Jansz de Mandeville, who descends from Sir Geoffrey Mandeville. He accompanied William the Conqueror in his defeat at the Battle of Hastings in England in 1066. He is a surety for the Magna Charta.

The descendants of Sir Geoffrey later migrated from Holland to New York. Many of them are also descendants of the Van Kouwenhoven/Conover/Crownover families of the USA. I have provable information that links Sir Geoffrey with Giles Janzs de Mandeville and his daughter Tryntje Gillis de Mandeville. She was married to Cornelis Jansen Vanderveer. They both lived on Long Island in Flatbush. They were married in 1672. Their daughter, my ancestor, Jacoba Vanderveer married Jan Willemson Kouwenhoven and removed to NJ in the 1700's.

30. Emily Tanner Putt-6(Gayle Marie-5, Virginia Louise-4, Garland-3, Silas Heston-2, David-1) was born on 21 Aug 1990 in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio. She married Anthony James "AJ" Halverson on 02 Apr 2012 in San Diego, CA, son of Vincent Anthony Halverson and Tracy Lynn Stinson. He was born on 28 Jul 1988 in Grand Forks AFB, Grand Forks, North Dakota, USA.

Notes for Emily Tanner Putt:

Emily Tanner Putt was named for several of her ancestors. She had a gg grandmother named Emma Catherine Tanner and a 3rd great grandmother named Emeline Reno. To honor all of them, she was named Emily but often was called Emmy or Emma but she later rejected Emma! Her middle name, Tanner, (which she hated at first but grew to accept) is obviously a family name from the Tanners of Southern Illinois. They were real pioneers of the old frontier. They wandered through Iowa and Missouri when they were still very much wilderness but finally settled in S. Illinois.

Emily was born with the blondest of hair, almost white, and beautiful blue eyes and a very hearty laugh.

Emily descends on her father's side through a long line of Taylors. She, and her brother Adam, of course, is a 4th cousin, nine times removed to Presidents Zachary Taylor and James Madison, who themselves were 2nd cousins. There is also a distant relationship to the Wright Brothers, although not direct.

Emily started preschool at Forest Chapel Methodist church in the fall of 1994 and continued her elementary years at Cameron Park Elementary in Forest Park Ohio, part of the Winton Woods City Schools. She attends Winton Woods High School.

From the age of 16, Emily worked as a waitress and cashier at LaRosa's in Forest Park to pay for her own first car, a shocking blue PT Cruiser. She hopes to attend the University of Dayton with a major in education.

She is a free spirit and has a wonderful sense of humor. She is a real treasure.

In Feb 2010, after graduating from Winton Woods HS in Jun 2009, Emily enlisted in the Navy. She initially entered the NUKE program and was stationed at Goose Creek, SC. She later changed rating to sonar and continued her training in San Diego, CA. While there she met and married A.J. (Anthony James) Halverson of Watertown, SD. Their son, Chandler James was born in San Diego.

Children of Emily Tanner Putt and Anthony James "AJ" Halverson are:

- ii. Charlotte "Charlie" Renee Halverson, B: Abt. Jun 2014 in Jackson, Madison Co., Tennessee.
