1. Hans Jeurgen Förtmeyer-1.

2. i. Johann Friedrich Förtmeier, B: Abt. 1775 in Loccum, Saxony, Germany, M: Anna Catharina Elisabeth Mell, 1797.

Generation 2

2. Johann Friedrich Förtmeier-2(Hans Jeurgen-1) was born about 1775 in Loccum, Saxony, Germany. He married Anna Catharina Elisabeth Mell in 1797, daughter of Joannes Henrich Molle and Anna Catharina Elisabeth Veltwisch. She was born in 1779 in Loccum, Saxony, Germany. She died on 13 Mar 1854 in Bohnhorst, Nienburg, Lower Saxony, Germany.

Notes for Johann Friedrich Förtmeier:

Source: Evangelica Church of Loccum, Germany In church records, the name is spelled Förtmeyer .

Elsewhere in the records is shown the birth of P. Hans Jürgen Fördtmeier on 1 Apr 1764. It shows a marriage in 1755 29 Oct of Hans Jürgen Fördtmeier and Clare Elisabeth Rust. It is not known if these are the parents of the younger Hans Jürgen but it seems likely they would be. Again, it is not known but it is possible the younger Hans Jürgen MIGHT be the father of Diederich Friedrich Wilhelm Foertmeyer.

He would have been 32 years old at his birth. A possibility but not certain. All are from the same town of Loccum in Germany.

Generation 3

3. Dietrich Friedrich Wilhelm Förtmeyer-3(Johann Friedrich-2, Hans Jeurgen-1) was born on 21 Feb 1798 in Loccum, Saxony, Germany. He died on 24 May 1861 in Bohnhorst, Nienburg, Lower Saxony, Germany. He married Ilse Dorothea "Doris" Georges, daughter of John (Johann) Georges and Anna Catharine Dorothee Seinecke. She was born on 28 Jul 1801 in Negenborn, Germany. She died on 27 Feb 1864 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Notes for Dietrich Friedrich Wilhelm Förtmeyer:

From "History of Cincinnati and Hamilton Co", pub. 1894 by S. B. Nelson & Company, Cincinnati, OH D.F.W and Doris (Mente) Foertmeyer were the parents of Charles Henry Foertmeyer, M.D., (b. 1841) Heretofore, we had always believed his name to be Adolph. However, papers sent to me from Germany by friend, Walter Mente, show him to be Dietrich William as well. I have no idea now where the name Adolph came from. We also believed his wife to be Doris George, not Mente. her cemetery records have her listed as Doris George Foertmeyer. It is interesting that her name might have been Mente for their son, Louis Foertmeyer, married a Marie Mente. When Marie's half brother, Eugene, got ready to immigrate to America about 1873, he said he wrote to a cousin named Foertmeyer in Cincinnati to see if it was safe from Indians! It might be that Doris was a sister of Wilhelm Mente, father of both Marie and Eugene and the cousin he wrote to might have been Louis or one of his brothers. Needs more investigation.

Dietrich was a school teacher and organist.

** Mystery solved. Doris George was the half sibling of Heinrich Wilhelm Mente. Her father (Johann Georges) must have passed away about 1803 or 1804. Her mother, Anna Catharine Dorothea Seineke Georges remarried to Johann Dietrich Heinrich Mente. Doris, being just a young child of about 2 years, was no doubt taken into the family and perhaps eventually went by the name of Mente. That would explain why in the History of Cincinnati and Hamilton Co., it says the mother of Charles Henry Foertmeyer, M.D. was Doris Mente when we believed her to be "George". Friend Walter Mente of Germany spoke to a clerk in Berlingen, birthplace of Anna C. D. Seineke/Seinke and she confirmed that Anna (who married Johann George) was the same person as Catharine Dorothea Seineke Mente. That solves this mystery!

Notes for Ilse Dorothea "Doris" Georges:

IDoris George Foertmeyer immigrated to the United State about 1850 after the death of her husband. She brought her children with her. She was the first person to be interred in the family plot. She is listed in cemetery records (Spring Grove, Cincinnati). as Mrs. D. Foertmeyer. Records sent to me from Walter Mente of Germering, Germany indicated that Doris George may have immigrated in 1861, not 1850 and also mentioned Louis George. Notes were rather vague.

Bob Wagner, a Foertmeyer cousin, found ships immigration records online that show a Dorothea and Emma Foertmeyer coming from Bremen Germany to New Orleans, Louisiana on the Ship Olbers arriving on 8 November 1851. The ages however don't fit. The age of Dorothea is given as 25 and Emma as 12. Emma was born in 1837 making her 14 at the time so that might be the right Emma. But Dorothea would be too young to be her mother. So another mystery presents itself. They are listed as passengers 292 and 293, both list "maid" as their occupation, leaving Hanover, Germany and traveling to Cincinnati.

The History of Cincinnati and Hamilton Co. , pub. 1894 by S.B. Nelson Co. in Cincinnati gives the date of birth for Doris as July 28, 1801 in Negenborn, Germany. Other family records say she was born on Dec. 9, 1802

Below is just an interesting account of how the ship Olbers sailed in sight (on this voyage that brought our ancestors here) of the Ship Ernestine.

Ship Ernestine

-----
Bremen, Germany to New Orleans 8 November 1851

DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI - PORT OF NEW ORLEANS

NOVEMBER WINDS, 1851 - THE VOYAGE OF A FEW IMMIGRANTS WHO CAME TO CAPE GIRARDEAU COUNTY. SEVERAL WOULD BECOME MEMBERS OF THE HANOVER LUTHERAN CONGREGATION.

In the fall of 1851, 283 immigrants boarded the German ship, ERNESTINE. Most came with all their worldly possessions, and most would never see their German homeland again. They came with faith that the perilous voyage would be completed and they would arrive safely in a new country where greater opportunities existed for them and their children. Most were young families, a few came alone and a few brought an aged parent. The oldest immigrant was 69 and the youngest was 3 months. A 7 year old boy and a 2 year old girl died about halfway through the voyage and were placed overboard into the sea. There was no minister aboard.

Generation 3 (con't)

The voyage took 2 months. A confirmation record shows that Wilhelm Krueger #98, was confirmed by special dispensation, so he could accompany his parents to America in mid-September 1951. Arrival in New Orleans was on 8 November 1851.

Our ancestors left little written about this voyage. Only notes in the margin of a prayer book tells of the loneliness of this ocean voyage, the fear of sinking, the meeting of a friend and the anticipation of arriving in a strange land.

A note scratched on a pine trunk lid tells of a second ship, the OLBERS, apparently was within view at times and arrived in New Orleans on the same day. It was not unusual for sailing ships to travel together. The OLBERS was the same ship which, in 1839, brought a part of the German Saxons who settled in Perry County. The OLBERS departed Bremen with 304 passengers. Another passenger manifest shows the Bark DIANA also arrived on 8 November.

He was a son of Wilhelm and Louisa (Mell) Foertmeyer, the former of whom was a tailor by occupation; his father was lieutenant of artillery in the battle of Dettingen, in 1748, when 35,000 English and Hanoverians defeated 60,000 French.

Dr. Foertmeyer received his early education at Bohnhorst, came to America and studied pharmacy, afterward studied medicine with Dr. C.A. George was the illegitimate son of Dorothee Luise Foertmeyer. His cemetery records show that his father's name was Henry Fortmeyer but based on German records, George was illegitimate so Henry, if that is his father's name, would not have been Foertmeyer. George did immigrate, and lived with relatives here until his untimely death at age 27 if tuberculosis.

He arrived in New York from Bremen on the ship Antilla on 14 Aug 1854.

Steffan's doctor was Doctor Foertmeyer as was Steffan's doctor also. He wrote consumption as cause of death on the death certificate, but an autopsy on Steffan gave the cause of death as cirrhosis.

I was surprized to see Clara Foertmeyer Buttemiller's cause of death. My father who was then a freshman in medical school fought it, but my grandfather did not. I will check on all the details when I see Dad in March. I believe Clara was living over on Price Hill with her daughter Emma and Marion Whitaker, MD. I believe he signed the death certificate. Should be on record. Forensic medicine was in its infancy, and because there was water in her lungs, she was presumed alive when she "went under." I guess stroke and heart attack were ruled out. But Uncle Marion and Aunt Emma kept her heavily medicated, and they may have been exonerating themselves. Her son, George S., MD (Emma's brother) was one of those "peace at any price" individuals, she was very old by the day's standards, she was despondent over the death of John C. and he (George S.) did not want to see his sister and brother-in-law blamed in any way. Her despondency is why we thought his (John C's) and her deaths were just 2 months apart in 1935. We now know he died in '34. Interesting story, don't you think?

Notes for Charles George Foertmeyer:

!Charles George Foertmeyer was a physician and a pharmacist and for many years operated a pharmacy at the northeast corner of 6th and Central in downtown Cincinnati. I believe the store was demolished in the late 1950's or early 1960's. Dr. Foertmeyer was also president and co-founder of the Hale Justice Drug Co, a wholesale company selling directly to pharmacies and physicians of the area. The company is still doing business.

Following is the text of a letter he received from John Uri

Lloyd. !Mr. Charles G. Foertmeyer

President, The Hale Justice Drug

Co. Cincinnati, Ohio

My Dear Mr. Foertmeyer:- It is with very special pleasure that I read your letter of recent date, acknowledging mine to Hale Justice Drug Company. My relations with that company, and with your "forebear" have ever been most pleasant, and I congratulate yourself and the company on the service it has done for the pharmacists of Cincinnati. May I not add that the name Foertmeyer stands for much in our city, and I trust that it may long continue as a business enterprise in Cincinnati.

With kindest regards and best wishes, and trusting that I may meet you personally in the not distant future, I am

Sincerely yours,

Notes for Louis Edwin Foertmeyer:

Louis served in the Army during WWI but I don't believe he left the U. S. His enlisted only a short time before the war ended. He was honorably discharged on Dec. 20, 1918. He attended the U. of Cincinnati for a couple of months before giving up college and traveling to N.Y. to work for the Dalton Adding Machine Co. He returned home shortly after when he became ill and joined the army upon recovering. He was briefly married (12-22-1924...noted in Blanche's diary) to Nellie Swan..but she didn't want to leave Norfolk. and he didn't want to stay so they separated. Louis never remarried and never had children. Uncle Louie, as we called him, kept a boat on Lake Erie at Sandusky called the Almarie. It was named for his two sisters, Alma and Marie. I remember visiting him there and going boating. On one outing, a terrible storm blew up. Chuck and I were too young to realize it but later Mother told us of the terrible danger we were in. I remember Louis drove a big Chrysler Imperial...the kind with the "square" steering wheel. He had a loud air horn on it that sounded like a train. I remember going for a drive with him while in Sandusky. He saw some young boys playing on the railroad track and honked that horn...scared those boys something awful! When he'd come to visit at our house, he almost always brought a bag of 100 pieces of bubble gum.

Listed by his own hand as Fred Wilson Emerson on his WWII draft registration card. So I think he wasn't really Frederick.

Fred spent most of his youth in Dunedin before moving back to Cincinnati as a young man, and meeting Edna. He's considered a pioneer of Dunedin. He retired back down here in 1949.

She died on 17 Nov 1972 in Los Altos, Santa Clara Co., California.

Notes for William Edward Foertmeyer:

THIS WAS MY UNCLE WILL, ACTUALLY MY GREAT UNCLE. HE AND AUNT CARRIE, WHEN I KNEW THEM, LIVED ON FLEMING ROAD, NORTH SIDE ABOUT 4 HOUSES FROM WINTON RD. IT WAS A YELLOW BRICK RANCH. I HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF VISITING THERE. UNCLE WILL ALWAYS HAD HIS DOGS, SETTERS AND POINTERS, AS HE LOVED TO HUNT AND OFTEN DID IN THE FIELDS BEHIND HIS HOME...UNTIL A SUBDIVISION WAS BUILT. HE ALSO GARDENED AND WOULD BRING OUR FAMILY LARGE BEETS! I LOVED BEETS BUT THESE SEEMED ESPECIALLY GOOD SINCE THEY WERE HOME GROWN IN HIS GARDEN. UNCLE WILL WAS A PHARMACIST BY OCCUPATION AND HAD HIS OWN DRUG STORE AT THE CORNER OF HAMILTON AVE. AND NORTH BEND ROAD IN COLLEGE HILL. AS OF 1992, THE STORE IS STILL THERE AND CALLED COLLEGE HILL PHARMACY. In 2005 it became a coffee house.

From the Social Security Death Index, we verify his dates of birth and death. His SSN was 287-30-5344.

Carrie Virginia Evans was born a "Ferguson" but was adopted by her grandparents, Charles W. Evans and Sarah Anderson Evans. Carrie's mother died shortly after her birth. Her father, John C. Ferguson, traveled for a living and felt he could not care for an infant. Therefore, she was adopted by her maternal grandparents.

Cemetery records indicate Carrie was born in Virginia. The 1900 Census indicates she was born in West Virginia. Her middle name was Virginia, perhaps there was some confusion there.

Notes for William Adolphus Foertmeyer:

!William started a medical practice in 1916 in Bellevue, KY. Prior to this he was a general surgeon at General Hospital in Cincinnati for 18 months. He married Nelle Mae Stangle of Brazil, IN. Nelle was of the Quaker faith.

According to grandson Samuel, William was a Major during WWI. Sam said he recalls seeing a photograph of his grandfather, Maj. Foertmeyer at Cassatt's Chateau in France during the war. In the photo were his grandfather, Mary Cassatt, Black Jack Pershing and a young Army lieutenant named "Hap" Arnold, later the first general of the USAF.

From the obituary of his wife, Nelle Stangle Foertmeyer.

"In 1916 she was married to William A. Foertmeyer, a graduate of the University of Cincinnati School of Medicine and of the Army Medical School of Washington D.C.

Her husband, a regimental surgeon, served with the Second Division, Corps of Engineers, in every major engagement of the A.E.F. [American Expeditionary Forces] in France in World War I and was awarded the American Silver Star and the French Croix de Guerre with Fourragere for heroism before Soissons (at Vitry) . After the cessation of hostilities he served with the American Army of Occupation in the German Rhineland from 1919 to 1920."

FOERTMEYER-William Louis of Carmel, Calif., died March 24, 2000 at the age of 79 in Monterey. He graduated from Yale in the Class of '43 and served in the U. S. Army during World War II. He is survived by his brother Ross Lee Foertmeyer (Yale '44).

Nephew Samuel Ross Foertmeyer says Uncle Bill was an abusive alcoholic. He was later diagnosed with Parkinson's disease. His final estate of almost $6,000,000 was fraudulently "stolen" by care taker Linda Wright who claimed to be his wife. I don't understand all the particulars. Sam believes Uncle Bill was murdered.

Her father went to Mexico to dodge the draft and it is known his wife went to visit. Her death record says she was born in Mexico. This makes more sense to me. ## Generation 6 (con't)

Emma Louise Wagner age 18 on 29 October 1911 a telephone operator living at 933 Clinton Street Cincinnati born Newport Kentucky and the daughter of Adolphus Henry Wagner and Mary Louisa Wunder married Joseph Leicht who was a widower. Joseph Leicht age 31 on February 1912 living at 939 Paradrome Street Cincinnati, a railway postal clerk born Cincinnati and the son of Joseph Leicht and Theresa Krilar. Married by Rev G.R. Robbins (Baptist) Aug 31, 1911.

Grandma (Wagner) Leicht (daughter of Adolphus Wagner and Emma Wunder) had three brothers: Clifford (1895), Richard (1897), and Robert Wagner (1901). I remember meeting all of them many times. They were very reserved and not open to conversation with us kids. I guess it was a generation gap, they believed kids should be seen and not heard. Even as adults we never felt very welcome around them.

Skip said all of his aunts were wonderful ladies. Emma was the funniest, could always make him laugh.

Notes for Joseph Leicht:

Spanish American War Veteran

"Grandpa Joseph and Grandma Emma (Wagner) Leicht: Grandpa was an only child, I remember seeing him once when I was three years old, just before he passed away. Dad took me over to say goodbye to him. Robert recalled that this house was actually four townhouses in a row and had a big water fountain in the side yard and a four car garage in the back. Robert said the Clifford took in his (Robert's) grandmother after Adolphus died and she stayed with him until she had a stroke in 1954. He was born on 10 Jun 1903 in Cincinnati, Ohio. He died on 20 May 1984 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Notes for Marie Eleanor Foertmeyer:

Marie was my favorite aunt. She was always kind and sweet...and generous. She was an energetic lady, always going...cards, bowling, entertaining family at her home at 6408 Cary Ave. in College Hill. She had "pet" wild birds to whom she would throw peanuts at her back door. We vacationed a few times with Marie and Armand in Estes Park, CO. They always stayed at Park's Pine Haven on the Fall River. There was a little craft shop across the street that she frequented. I loved her very much. She had breast cancer, having both breasts removed when she was in her 70's I believe. On Easter Sunday of 1988, she came to our house wanting to see dad, her brother. She had a terrible pain in her abdomen. Dad wasn't home but we invited her in, of course, to wait for him and tried to make her comfortable. Mom and Dad were at church, I believe. Dad sent her to the hospital for tests, thinking perhaps it was diverticulitis, but it was not...it was cancer. Within 5 mo. she was dead. I was very pregnant with Adam when we paid our last visit to her in early September. Nick and I stayed only a few minutes as she looked so tired. I remember saying I loved her and giving her a hug. She died a few days later. I wish she had lived to see Adam and so that he could have known her. A very gracious lady.

that specialty. Captain Foertmeyer served in the European theatre with Patton's Army in the medical corps and upon his return (aboard the ship Aiken Victory), he and wife Virginia began their family. Charles practiced internal medicine rather than taking more time to finish his psychiatry specialty. He joined the practice of Stewart Matthews, M.D. (The Wyoming Medical Center) in Wyoming, OH and remained a part of that ever-changing group for his entire career. He retired in 1983 and pursued a leisurely life enjoying his hobbies..golf..lapidary...ham radio..."computing".. He always enjoyed traveling and in earlier years took our family on marvelous month-long vacations all over the United States.

On Oct. 27, 1992, he was honored by the Cincinnati Academy of Medicine for 50 years of service. Their first home was on Banbury St. in Valleydale, moving to 926 Reily Rd. in Wyoming, OH in 1952. About 4 years later they moved about 2 blocks away to 554 Woodbrook Ln. In 2002, Charles had surgery for stenosis on his spine and was hospitalized for about three months. Upon his release, he could not return to the home on Woodbrook as it was not handicapped accessible and Charles was now pretty much wheel chair bound. Ginny and Charlie purchased a new home at 789 Danbury in Forest Park, close to son Tom and daughter Gayle. Chuck moved in with Charles after Mother passed away.

Notes for Virginia Louise Driskell:

Virginia is an only child and in later years admitted she wished she had had brothers and sisters. She had a happy childhood but regrets that one part. She was born in Owensboro, KY but moved with her family to Cincinnati when just about 6 weeks old. The family rented homes in Norwood, OH where Virginia attended school throughout her school years. She dislikes the name Virginia and prefers to be called Ginny. She attended the Christ Hospital School of Nursing and met her husband Charles, through her association with General Hospital, now University Hospital. They were married in 1943 and traveled much about the country in the early years as the Army moved them from place to place, mostly in Kansas and Arizona. While Charles was overseas, Ginny lived with her parents in Norwood. After his return, they bought a small house on Banbury St. in Valleydale where the first two children were born. They later moved to a larger house at 926 Reily Rd. in Wyoming where Thomas was born. With the impending arrival of John, they bought their home at 554 Woodbrook Lane in Wyoming and lived there until 2002. Due to Charles' failing health, they moved to a smaller ranch style home at 789 Danbury in Forest Park. Ginny hated giving up the home on Woodbrook - it was their home for nearly 50 years. Ginny never returned to nursing after her children were born. She was active in many clubs and associations, always a part of her childrens activities and was a wonderful grandma..doing typically wonderful grandmotherly things including many trips to the Museum Center, Chuck E Cheeses and the zoo.

Mother passed away on October 11, 2002 of a heart attack. It was totally unexpected and so sudden. I can't imagine life without her and all the wonderful things she did for us.

BLANCHE AND WARD CELEBRATED THEIR 50TH ANNIVERSARY IN 1977 IN DUNEDIN, FLORIDA

WHERE THEY MOVED AFTER WARD RETIRED. THERE IS A LETTER IN THE NOTEBOOK FROM BLANCHE DESCRIBING THE AFFAIR.

Notes for Artemus Ward Williams III:

Family knowledge: Blanche and Ward owned a farm on Compton Road near Colerain Ave. As a very young child, I can remember attending family picnics there on the 4th of July. The more modern ranch house next door belonged to their son, Donald. As of 2008, both homes are still there. A nearby street is named Wardwood, in honor for Ward Williams who owned the property that subdivision now occupies.

From the diary of Blanche Cole Foertmeyer, there are many mentions of Blanche and Ward Williams. Blanche Emerson Williams was a niece of Charles George Foertmeyer, Blanche Cole's husband. Ward had a maiden aunt named Alice McKnight (maiden name)

Alice was a medical doctor, one of the first in the state of Ohio.

"Aunt Allie" is mentioned several times in Blanche Foertmeyer's diary, about 1932-33, as coming to stay and help out. She was possibly retired by then, having been born, probably in the 1870's. My mother, who remembers Aunt Allie says she was a kind and helpful woman.

Mr. Williams worked at print shop (his father was a printer) in Northside called McKee printers. The Williams lived on Haight Ave next to Parkers Woods. Ward He served in WW one as a Math instructor in West Point. After college he worked as auditor for PG for 43 years.

Notes for Mary Ellen Leicht:

Moved to Seattle after WWII

The only one still alive (2009) is Aunt Mary Ellen, she lives in Seattle, Washington. Her and Uncle Neil had two sons Pete (1945) and Paul (1949). Neil passed away a couple of years ago, he was a great guy. He build his home from scratch and owned his own automotive garage, which he sold to his sons when he retired. Pete is an old car buff, he owns several very nice cars from the 1930's and 1940's. Paul was into snowmobiles and traveled the country racing his souped up models. Children of Mary Ellen Leicht and Neil McLeod are:

He died on 24 Feb 2004 in St. Petersburg, Florida. He married (1) Karen Fay Bevers on 02 Aug 1974 in Tucson, AZ. She was born on 02 Aug 1956 in Orchard, TX.
- Notes for Robert Hartley Wagner Jr.:
Feb 17, 1960. My parents divorced. I'm living with my father in Price Hill. My brother Richard lives with my mother in Mt. Carmel. It's my father's birthday and we are all together at his house. Richard picked up a .22 cal hand gun and thought it was not loaded. He pull the trigger and was hit in the right temple. The lead round passed through his brain, shattered into thirteen pieces. The papers and other sources of news said that the boys had been playing Russian Roulette (not true) Richard was not expected to live and was in a comma for 31 days. When he came out of the comma he was diagnosed as being permanently brain damaged and paralyzed in his left side for life. Six months later he has completely recovered. He now lives in New Richmond Ohio, Drives a truck for a living and has grandchildren. Richard still has that bullet in his brain.
I above all people have every reason to believe in miracles, but I don't expect one in this case. My father had told the police that my brother was left handed and since he was shot in the right temple, I became suspect in the shooting and was taken to the county jail as an adult and charged with attempted murder. After Richard regained composure and cleared me. I was released and went to live with my mother. I'm sorry that I took so long to clear up that matter, but it was a long time ago and I had just turned fifteen years of age at the time.

Notes for Berz Clifford Wagner:

Allegheny Airline had a plane go down in Berz Wagner's apple orchard in 1966. 173 people died in the crash. Berz Sued and received 1.3 million for damage to the orchard. I pick apples there in the summer of 1961 for en cents a hamper and lunch. Berz did well just selling the apples. He must have had a good salary at Bell. I didn't know he retired until 1969 and only because his name was no longer listed in the front of the phone directory as chief engineer. His son Bill and I still talk now and then. Bill is a purchasing agent for Proctor and Gambel. His brother Charles is a mathematics professor at The University of Kentucky. I met Berz daughter by accident at a Christmas Party in Kentucky in 1980. Notes for Robert Charles Burt:

Bob Burt (Bob Jr. as most called him) was a medical doctor practicing almost his whole career at the Wyoming Medical Center where his uncle, Charles H. Foertmeyer, practiced. He spent his military enlistment in Japan where his daughter Susan was born.

Bob and wife, Jean, moved to a lovely farm in rural Loveland, OH where for many years they hosted the family 4th of July picnic and reunion. Both sides of the family came and there was always quite a crowd. There were ponds for fishing, horses and ponies for riding, volleyball, softball, skeet shooting and in later years, they built a swimming pool and lovely gazebo.

The last party was in 1996. Sadly, Bob's health was deteriorating and with Alzheimers, it was too much for them to continue. Bob and Jean sold the farm in 1998 moving into a smaller home. Bob's condition declined rapidly and he passed away in the presence of his whole family on Dec. 1, 1998. Notes for Robin Mary Brunzman:

Robin was born with Down's Syndrome. Robin loved to take photographs and almost always had her camera with her.

I once took Robin to the stable when I was in high school to let her ride Roan, my quarter horse. As her sister, Kim and I walked beside the horse down the driveway, Robin would smile and wave and act as though she was a princess riding her white steed and waving to her loyal subjects. Ahh, innocence.

Robin's sister, Kim, went to college in Boulder, CO and Robin, who seemed unhappy here, was put in a school in Boulder. She seemed very happy there and only came home to Cincinnati with Kim on special occasions. The family often visited out there while on skiing trips or the like. Robin was buried in Boulder because she liked it so out there.

He was born on 20 Aug 1955 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Notes for Gayle Marie Foertmeyer:

Gayle was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Attended Wyoming, Ohio public schools all the way through. In 1969, she began her higher education at William Woods College (now University) in Fulton, Missouri. She graduated in 1973, cum laude, and was selected Distinguished Scholar in the Dept. of Elementary Education. However, other than a couple of instances of substitute teaching, she never taught school as a career. Instead, she went to work for her father's medical practice and remained in that field for the next 18 years. She quit work altogether in March of 1992 to stay home and raise her two children. She returned to work part time for the Winton Woods City Schools as a crossing guard and cafeteria worker when daughter, Emily, entered kindergarten.

After two years in those jobs, she returned to substitute teaching for the same school district beginning in the fall of 1999.

Her first love in life has always been horses. She started riding at age 5 and talked father into buying a horse by age 13. Her second horse, Royalty Roan, became her good friend. Roan died 30 years later at 33. He died as a result of a stroke and is buried on the farm of Gayle's long time friend, Vicki Gannon Vick off Thompson Road in Colerain Twp.

Gayle's other interests are cross-stitching, knitting and other needle crafts and occasionally likes drawing and painting..mostly horses.

Gayle had a brief first marriage from 1978-1980, no children resulted. During that time she lived in Apt. 5 at 1428 Springfield Pike in Wyoming, OH. After the divorce, Gayle continued to live at that address until Oct. of 1987. She married Nicholas Putt on 4-4-1987 and Nick moved into the apartment from his mobile home in Harrison, OH. Not being able to support two residences, the mobile home was moved to 389 Barker Dr. in the Countryside mobile home park near Hamilton and the apartment was bid farewell.

In January of 1993, the couple bought a ranch home at 714 Carlsbad Road in Forest Park, OH.

Great dog lovers, the couple had a schnoodle called Max which was adopted from the pound in October of 1987.

Max passed away in Sept. of 1997. They also had a GSD, Shadow and raised Pembroke Welsh Corgis.

Mischief, Kit, and Dharma were long time residents, others came and went according to Gayle's breeding needs.

Notes for Frank J. Kandil:

Middle initial J. stood for nothing, just the letter J.

Notes for Nicholas Paul Putt:

Nick was born in Cincinnati, Ohio to Gene and Mabel Putt. He attended parochial schools through his early elementary years, later attending Mt. Healthy Public School through high school. Nick's first career interest is law enforcement. He started as a Ranger in the Hamilton Co. Park District, later working with the Cleves, Ohio police Department. He took a job, better pay, with the state of Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation for 10 years. He left "the state" to work for Colerain Twp. PD but left after a year for "political" reasons. He worked briefly for the Elmwood Twp. PD but left after 6 mo. feeling it was a corrupt system. This was later proved when the mayor and former mayor were convicted for election fraud and other community leaders, including the PD were still under investigation. Nick returned to the Bureau of Worker's compensation where he worked in his old capacity as a fraud investigator until January of 1992 when he made a lateral transfer to work as a corrections officer at a state prison in Lebanon, OH. Nick is a Mason, "non-practicing" member of the Catholic Church.

After their April 4, 1987 marriage, upon which it snowed heavily, the couple flew to Phoenix, AZ for a honeymoon..staying at a resort in Carefree, AZ. After 3 days there, they flew on to Las Vegas and spent 4 more days there. Initially, Nick moved into Gayle's apartment at 1428 Springfield Pk, #5 in Wyoming, OH but the couple later moved into Nick's mobile home and settled in at 389 Barker Dr. near Hamilton, OH. Both children were born while the couple lived here. On January 18, 1993, the family moved into their house at 714 Carlsbad Rd. in Forest Park OH.

Nick left his job as a corrections officer and worked for the Security Department at the Drake Center on Galbraith Rd. in Cincinnati, OH. A few years later, he took the job of Environmental Services Manager at the Drake Center.

Nick is a 4c8r to Presidents Zachary Taylor and James Madison through the Taylors on his fathers side of the family.

Adam loves the sport of baseball and played from his T-ball years through his high school years. He was a very good pitcher but also excelled at short stop and other infield positions. During his high school years, he also enjoyed working on the stage crew of many productions by the high school drama department.

Notes for John Louis Foertmeyer:

John is lucky to be here! He is the accident prone one of the family. At age 3 he fell into the neighbors fish pond and nearly drown. We credit 4 year old Tommy for thinking quickly, getting mommy and saving John's life. He was hit by a car at age 11 and broke his leg...7 mo from the time of the accident until he could walk unassisted. Multitudes of stitches later, he is amazingly still with us. John, although offered the opportunity, was the only one to turn down college. He went right into the work force and manages well doing quality control work for the Reynolds Aluminum co. John has always enjoyed working on automobiles and his passion in life is buying junkers and restoring them. When not at work or at home, he can be found in Dad's garage working on his cars. Of course this knowlege comes in handy

74. Nancy Lou Foertmeyer-7(Julius W. "Jack"-6, William Edward-5, Louis C.-4, Dietrich Friedrich Wilhelm-3, Johann Friedrich-2, Hans Jeurgen-1) was born on 01 Feb 1951 in Cincinnati, Ohio. She married (1) Unknown. She married (2) Charles W. "Chuck" Klayer on 14 Jun 1969 in San Diego, CA. He was born about 1948. She married (3) Arthur Stamey about 1981. She married (4) Arthur F. She married (6) Fred Riehle on 22 Apr 1998 in Kenton Co. KY. He was born about 1949. She married (7) John. She married (8) Tony Palladino. She married (9) Tom Wallace.

Notes for Nancy Lou Foertmeyer:

This is incredible. Nancy has already had 6 spouses or significant others (1996) and now I get a wedding invitation in the mail for #7. She's right up there with Zsa Zsa. On Jan 27, 1996, Nancy is marrying Gerald C. Sams at the Taylor Creek Condos outside Miamitown, OH. Mom and I attended. The whole thing was rather informal and rowdy but I'm happy that she seems to have found happiness with this man. All her kids were there and Dorothy, her mom. Her half sister Barbara was missing as was her dad but then we didn't expect to see him there.

Generation 7 (con't)

Christmas 1998...mother recieved a Christmas card from Nancy. Apparently she is no longer married to Gerald Sams and has yet another husband sometime between 1996 and 1998.

Notes for Unknown:

Nancy was not married to whoever this man was. According to Dorothy, Nancy's mother, her son Scott was born out of wedlock and no one knows who the father is...not sure if Nancy even knows. Scott does go by the name of Foertmeyer.

Child of Nancy Lou Foertmeyer and Unknown is:

- i. Scott Foertmeyer, B: 01 Mar 1969 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Notes for Scott Foertmeyer:

This son was born out of wedlock. No one knows who his father is. This is from his grandmother, Dorothy Kennedy Foertmeyer.

Child of Nancy Lou Foertmeyer and Charles W. "Chuck" Klayer is:

Notes for Arthur Stamey:

Source: Nancy Lou's mother, Dorothy. She said Nancy told her recently, (1994) that she and Arthur had been married 13 years making her year of marriage 1981. There are no children by this marriage.

Notes for Gerald C. Sams:

Gerald is "husband" #7. I should say according to Nancy's mother Dorothy, Nancy has not been legally married to all of her significant others. I think 4 of the seven have actually been legal spouses but I'm not sure. Not even Dorothy knows the name of her first partner. Nancy apparently had her first child by this man but has never told anyone his name.

Child of Nancy Lou Foertmeyer and John is:

- i. Brandon Klayer, B: 01 Dec 1979 in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co. OH.

Notes for Brandon Klayer:

This child was born out of wedlock to a man unknown to Dorothy, my source, and the grandmother of Brandon. It is not known if even Nancy Lou knows who the father was. The child carries the Klayer name I suppose because that was Nancy's only legal married name. He is not the child of Charles Klayer, though.

Brandon is in and out of jail according to his Aunt Jackie.

Has one, maybe two kids, by a woman not necessarily his wife.

Notes for Tony Palladino:

Nancy was briefly "married" to this man but it ended when she learned he was already married. They, fortunately, had no children.

pronounced it Butte-eh-miller until 1962. When I entered medical school, I thought the easiest way was to drop the middle -eh- and pronounce it as I still like to say today, Butte, as in Montana, and Miller, as in beer. Even my dad says Butte-miller. So that is where we are now. The Buttemillers. We might have been lucky to have it have been Buttermiller, as then there would have been no doubt as to the pronunciation.

Notes for Jennifer Marie Foertmeyer:

Notes for Geoffrey Hamilton Mandeville Jr.:

Both the Doremus and Mandeville families were of Holland extraction, the original ancestors in this country having been emigrants from Holland, coming over about 1650, and settling in Passaic County, New Jersey, where many of their descendants still reside, respected and esteemed as good and influential citizens of the State. Giles Jansen de Mandeville, the ancestor in this country of the family of that name, was a French Huguenot, and fled from Normandy to Holland as a refugee in the days of Roman Catholic persecution in France. From Holland he emigrated to America, in the same ship with the famous Governor Stuyvesant, of the colony of New Amsterdam, now New York. He became the friend of De Mandeville, and aided him in many ways through his influence as Governor of the colony.

Below from a note posted on the internet by a Carleen Aiken:

I am a descendant of Giles Jansz de Mandeville, who descends from Sir Geoffrey Mandeville. He accompanied William the Conqueror in his defeat at the Battle of Hastings in England in 1066. He is a surety for the Magna Charta.

The descendants of Sir Geoffrey later migrated from Holland to New York. Many of them are also descendants of the Van Kouwenhoven/Conover/Crownover families of the USA. I have provable information that links Sir Geoffrey with Giles Janzs de Mandeville and his daughter Tryntje Gillis de Mandeville. She was married to Cornelis Jansen Vanderveer. They both lived on Long Island in Flatbush. They were married in 1672. Their daughter, my ancestor, Jacoba Vanderveer married Jan Willemson Kouwenhoven and removed to NJ in the 1700's.

He was born on 28 Jul 1988 in Grand Forks AFB, Grand Forks, North Dakota, USA.

Notes for Emily Tanner Putt:

Emily Tanner Putt was named for several of her ancestors. She had a gg grandmother named Emma Catherine Tanner and a 3rd great grandmother named Emeline Reno. To honor all of them, she was named Emily but often was called Emmy or Emma but she later rejected Emma! Her middle name, Tanner, (which she hated at first but grew to accept) is obviously a family name from the Tanners of Southern Illinois. They were real pioneers of the old frontier. They wandered through Iowa and Missouri when they were still very much wilderness but finally settled in S. Illinois.

Emily was born with the blondest of hair, almost white, and beautiful blue eyes and a very hearty laugh.

Emily descends on her father's side through a long line of Taylors. She, and her brother Adam, of course, is a 4th cousin, nine times removed to Presidents Zachary Taylor and James Madison, who themselves were 2nd cousins. There is also a distant relationship to the Wright Brothers, although not direct.

Emily started preschool at Forest Chapel Methodist church in the fall of 1994 and continued her elementary years at Cameron Park Elementary in Forest Park Ohio, part of the Winton Woods City Schools. She attends Winton Woods High School.

From the age of 16, Emily worked as a waitress and cashier at LaRosa's in Forest Park to pay for her own first car, a shocking blue PT Cruiser. She hopes to attend the University of Dayton with a major in education.

She is a free spirit and has a wonderful sense of humor. She is a real treasure.

In Feb 2010, after graduating from Winton Woods HS in Jun 2009, Emily enlisted in the Navy. She initially entered the NUKE program and was stationed at Goose Creek, SC. She later changed rating to sonar and continued her training in San Diego, CA. While there she met and married A.J.(Anthony James) Halverson of Watertown, SD. Their son, Chandler James was born in San Diego.
